Agastache 'Blue Boa', No.1 – Whoà 'Blue Boa'! Flushing out from a mid-season cut for a fresh set of buds and plump spikes of violet-purple!

Ajuga 'Chocolate Chip', No.1 – Packed pots of mat-forming dark green and chocolate-bronze leaves will make great filler in rock gardens, containers or pathways.

Carex 'Evergold', No.1 – Another great filler for containers or shady borders! Narrow leaves with stripes of creamy yellow and green are flowing over the pot edges.

Coreopsis 'Red Elf', No.1 – The mounded foliage of this new Li'l Bang™ Coreopsis has loads of buds on upright stems and deep dark velvety red blooms, topping out at just 12". A cute elf for the retail shelf.

Dixie Wood Fern, No.1 – Native Dryopteris x australis has slightly arching 4' tall fronds that form an impressive clump in the woodland garden. A manageable height at 18" tall in the pot now. Nice!

Echinacea 'White Swan', No.1 & No.2 – Balance out the wacky coneflower colors with peaceful 'White Swan'. Buds and fresh blooms!

Heuchera 'Caramel', No.2 – Fall-hued foliage fills the pots. Perfect for autumn displays!

Sempervivum 'Desert Bloom', 1 qt. – The attractive dusty rose-tinged thick rosettes of this cold hardy hens and chicks are clucking for a new home!
